NCCSIR Definition of Eligible Events

General Definition: Reportable injury or illness* associated with active participation in training/conditioning, practice, or competition for an enrolled sport

Eligible events have to meet ONE of the criteria listed in EACH box

Must be an Athlete in a *Injury/Illness must be one of: Outcome must be one of: sponsored sport at one of: Activity must be one of: Middle School (Public Death Traumatic events: During, or as Traumatic Fatality or Systemic Fatality and Private) a result of, a scheduled team Permanent from any cause Non-fatal: Disability High School (Public athletic activity (team Severe Semiand Private) conditioning session, team a. Severe injury to the spinal cord Permanent College/University practice session, competition) or brain Disability Non-cardiac Systemic: All events b. Skull fracture or spine fracture (Public and Private) Cardiac, heatstroke, Semi-professional resulting from athletic activity c. Commotio cordis (blunt chest or sickling event Professional directly related to sponsored impact causing cardiac arrest) sport (includes personal fitness d. Exertional heat stroke with full recovery Olympic or National & conditioning) Exertional sickling Team Organized Youth Cardiac events: All events are Sudden cardiac arrest Leagues (eg. AAU) included, even those not Rhabdomyolysis with directly associated with hospitalization physical activity h. Internal organ injury (e.g. Lacerated spleen)

Life-threatening severe bleeding